Maypole for Beltane

Crafting with Bella

In 2015 I decided I wanted to make my own little maypole to take to the garden every time I celebrated Beltane.

You will need

- 1 wooden stick
- different colours of ribbon
- fake flowers
- glue

Now, I admit that I have no idea on how to braid the ribbons but lucky for me, my husband knew.

Learning the Dances: Single Braid from

<https://www.marthastewart.com/8104867/eco-friendly-party-supplies-explained>

A single braid is created when alternate (every other one) maypole dancers move in opposite directions and weave their streamers in and out, over and under. The rhythm of the step can be determined by the music you play or the tune the dancers want to sing. They move simultaneously with a gliding step

Each dancer alternates between going over or under the streamer of each dancer he or she meets as they circle the pole. Once the streamers have been fully wound, the dance is reversed, again going over and under the other dancers' streamers until they are unwound. Dancers can improvise steps so long as the braiding of the ribbons is consistent.

And VOILA!

Correllians Around the World

By Lady Wolfciara

In this series of articles, we are going to focus on a Correllian Member, and learn a little bit more about the said person. I do hope, that this will shine a light to all of those, who are giving of themselves, to the Tradition.

This month, we are going to talk with Morghanna Silkmoon, or as she really is named: Luciana Aparecida Bispo Dantas Dias, she is 54 years old, and living in Porto Esperidião city, Mato Grosso state, Brazil. She is married, and live with her partner, 9 cats and one dog. She has 3 children, 2 girls and 1 son, and they are 31, 26 and 24 years old, respectively. She is a person who loves peace, nature, who insists on believing that a better world is possible... a world where the whole works in a harmonious way and a world where there is more equality with equity among all. She is the type of person who likes to see the color of life, the world, people, beings, in short, the whole.

She love mentoring, accompanying those who are learning, to take their first steps... She feel fulfilled doing these activities, and she feel like a potential form of contribution to Wicca, as well as to our Tradition, when she work in this way. Teaching, education, mentoring is for her an accomplishment in life, and that makes her happy and fulfilled. Her favourite divination tool is Tarot.

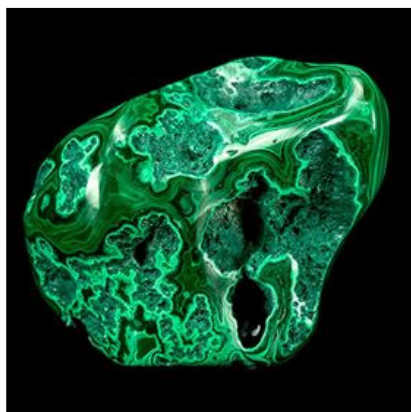

When she found her way into the Correllian Tradition, as she had been making her way as a Solitary Witch for about 5 years. She found a text about the Correllian Tradition on a web page, she doesn't remember if it was in Witch Vox or another, and as she continued reading the text. She became interested, as there were several points in common with what she thought would be to live Wicca and Witchcraft. And she accessed the Correllian Tradition web-page, and there she was fascinated, because it was a feeling of being back at home, being with my family again. She then, joined WitchSchool, in 2003, and started her studies with Correllian Degrees from First, Second, and then Third Degree, and is near the final of the Third Degree. She is a member of Witan Shrine Vivência Pagã (Distant Shrine of Temple of Sedna), and Order of translators. She has studied many courses in the most varied areas of Witchcraft, like Wicca and Paganism in general. She is currently taking Usui Reiki, among many other new courses and refresher courses.

We thank Morghanna for taking time to answer our questions for us. Hoping for continued blessings, for her in the Wicca-path, and Correllian Tradition, that she is leading.

Crystals and Gemstones Corner

By Rev Firefay

Malachite

Malachite is a beautiful green stone made of copper carbonate that has several layers of different shades of green. It is used for healing as well as protection since the times of ancient Egypt and ancient Greece. The stone was also ground down into green pigment used as eyeshadow. Malachite is considered a transformation stone and is excellent for personal growth on a spiritual and emotional level.

As a protective stone, Malachite is said to protect one from the “evil eye” and allegedly, breaks into pieces when one is in immediate danger. This is a stone for children and travelers to keep them safe but also protects one from harmful radiation, waves, and any other negative energy.

When used for healing, malachite is good for physical, emotional, and spiritual healing. It will help balance the heart chakra and treats depression, anxiety as well as trauma. Malachite will even resurface old blockages due to trauma, so don't be surprised if you suddenly remember old painful memories, you thought you had forgotten. In spiritual healing, this stone removes any obstacles that may be preventing your spiritual growth and helps in the rebirthing process.

For physical healing malachite is excellent for anything having to do with the joints and bones but also any female problems. It is a good stone for blood pressure problems, asthma, Parkinson's disease, liver detox, epilepsy, many infectious diseases, and much more. Malachite supports the immune system which helps protect your body from many illnesses.

Attention, this stone is not to be worn directly on the skin unless it's polished but is still better worn over clothing. Never put malachite in your mouth so it's not a stone to be left around small children. Both salt and too much sunlight can fade or damage the stone over time so, prefer moonlight, water, or contact with the earth to purify and charge your stone. Be sure to thoroughly dry your stone if you get it wet because over exposure to water can damage the surface.

Living the Essence of The Craft

by Rev. Morghanna Silkmoon

Walking the path in The Craft ¹ can be too dazzling for many who are starting to study it. Dazzling in the sense that, at first glance, you discover (or rediscover) that you are capable of using the forces of the Universe – inside and outside yourself – in your favor, in any aspect.

I know that everyone seeks to observe the Three-fold Law (Rule of Three) and the Wiccan Rede, but does everyone observe them the way it should be observed?

Let's see, then, the text of these two Laws, literally, and then move on to a detailed analysis of them:

- 1- The Threefold Law tells us that whatever we send comes back to us three times more intensely than when it was sent.
- 2- The Wiccan Rede tells us, "Do what you want, as long as you don't harm anything or anyone."

Well, at first glance, these are extremely simple precepts to be interpreted. However, when we observe that a large contingent using them wrongly, even with good intentions, and believing they are applying them correctly, it is what causes us concern, and this concern is what motivated me to write about this aspect of living in Witchcraft .

During this initial phase in the Craft, there is no point in advising: "Do not do incantations and spells - that is, magic of any kind or purpose - until you have a minimum of knowledge for it!" , because for those who starting out, the possibility of moulding whatever they want around them is tempting. In addition, the reasons are countless, which can be unresolved love, social rejection, problems at work and/or school, family conflicts, in short, a range of possibilities that take away anyone's inner balance and peace. Here I do not generalize, because for sisters and brothers of all ages, there are many who have the necessary attention and discernment to “not bite off more than you can chew”, and not risk serious consequences that may arise from poorly thought out actions, not properly considered before putting them into practice.

About the Threefold Law², I think I do not even need to comment, because everything we do returns to us with three times greater intensity because it also is reflected in the three planes: in the physical plane, in the mental plane and in the spiritual plane. If what you will do will be, in every sense, "for the good of all", then "so mote it be, by the power of three times three", for such an action will benefit those directly involved and the everyone who is indirectly involved in the process and will return three times as intense in benefits to the person who performed it. I believe that so far there is no doubt.

But the most important thing, however, is to give the Wiccan Rede a triple attention, as this law is, apparently, to the eyes, simple to apply as it is obvious.

However, as sincere students of the Witchcraft, we know better than anyone else that the greatest Mysteries reside in the obvious, and it is precisely because it is so obvious that we must pay more attention to the analysis of these precepts that we are analysing here.

In order to exemplify, let us put it in practical terms, with a very mundane example: A person works, has her life, or studies and works, or the like. However, she feels that her current salary is insufficient to cover her expenses, or else she plans to do something, a trip, and a long renovation of her home, in short, something that demands having a better financial situation, which she does not have at that time.

So, she rethinks, and has already exhausted the possibilities of getting that additional money. There is no way to get rid of the current job because there is no other proposal for another location. So, she tries a salary increase, and goes to talk to her boss, who despite it being evident that he will not grant her the desired increase, he tells her that he will study the issue, and that after a few days he will bring her the answer. .

² Correllian Nativist Tradition, let us not forget that “three times” has a metaphorical interpretation, with “three times” being the number of times necessary until the person receives the learning in the situation in question.

As she knows the boss, and has the tranquillity of her competence, being a dedicated employee, she goes home that day, considering the possibility of making use of the accomplishment of an enchantment that will help her in this conquest.

She has a clear conscience that, with a better salary, she will be able to help other people (the indirect benefit, where we could apply the "for the good of all"). So, decide: Get to work! And performs a well-planned ritual for a pay rise .

So, projected intention, accomplished fact!

And so, one fine day, she arrives at her job and finds, to her shock, that the company has fired a 45-year-old supervisor who has been with the company for 20 years. He thinks it's absurd, and goes to work, performs his function normally, but finding that dismissal absurd, because the one fired was an extremely competent employee, and besides, what would he do with his life, because at his age, get a new job it's hard, and besides, he has a family and 3 kids!

Then it is time for lunch, and a colleague from the department comes to tell her that the boss wants to talk to her. "He's going to tell me that it's not possible to grant the raise" – she thinks – and goes to the boss's office.

She enters and he asks her to sit down. "It's now!" – She thinks – and then she starts to think, "I've been analysing your request, and I confess that I analysed it very carefully. You know times are hard, and I really thought it wouldn't be possible to give you the raise in your current position. During the days that followed, I analysed the company's situation, and considered the risk/benefit, and as I need younger and more dynamic people, I am laying off older employees, who are therefore ill-adapted to the new system. And your sector was one of those where I needed to apply this strategy. It is not possible for the company to grant you the increase in the position you currently hold, and as you are extremely competent and dedicated, I am promoting you to Supervisor. Thus, we resolved two issues, the company will have a new supervisor, younger, and therefore more dynamic, and you, the salary increase it so desperately needs. "

Then, as her boss talked, an icy feeling grew inside her, because everything fell into place. It could even be that this was already in the company's plans, and it would have just "pulled the trigger" for the fact to materialize. So she starts to feel co-responsible for the dismissal, not only of her former supervisor, but of other employees, as the company did so.

Therefore, it is as everything collapses in your head! Even if she did not accept it, everything was already a fact of no return; there was nothing else to do...

In short, this is just one example perfectly possible to happen in our lives, and we must reflect that the Threefold Law can be an immediate consequence of the application of the Wiccan Rede in our lives.

Therefore, whenever we strongly desire that something materializes in our lives, we must keep in mind the before, during and after, in all its reflexes and consequences, of the projection we make (and this goes not only for ritualistic activities, but also for the simplest mental projections). If we want an "X" event, we must analyze the entire path that must be taken for this fact to materialize, thinking, reflecting, analysing and evaluating all probabilities, and always analysing the risk/benefit, not only for oneself and for others, or their close ones, but also taking into account those indirectly involved and who apparently would have nothing to do with our issue, but that is not why they would not run the risk of being affected. And when performing a work in magic, this intention must not only be taken into account, but in fact must be part of this magical work. Only in this way will the "to harm none" that the Wiccan Rede emphasizes when it tells us "do what you want" occur.

I say all this because, we all know, the Universe is a Great Web, and we all affect or can be affected by any event that interferes in this Universal Web. If a thread breaks or is damaged, or a thread is woven irregularly, even if it does not drastically affect the whole, it has already caused a significant change at the local level, and which, to a greater or lesser extent, will be felt by all.

May we always reflect, because the harmony of the whole depends on the constructive contribution of each one of us.

And so mote it be!

Many blessings,

Rev. Morghanna Silkmoon

Yin and Yang

By Rev Firefay

Every ancient culture has always had a sense of duality in nature because it is a truth that we see all around us. Most creatures have two different sexes and the idea of opposites such as hot/cold, light/dark, moist/dry, is omnipresent. In Wicca we see these polar opposites as feminine and masculine or as God and Goddess. In Chinese Medicine, this duality is known as the concept of yin and yang. Nothing can be qualified as yin nor as yang without being compared to its opposite for neither can exist without the other. Yin is considered the divine feminine energy, which is stable, lacking movement, nourishing, introspective, cool, dark, and compared to the earth. Yang is considered the divine masculine energy, which is volatile, in constant movement, protecting, expressive, warm, light, and compared to the sky. In the human body, the solid organs which transform nutrients into energy used for the body are considered yin compared to the hollow organs used for transporting and evacuating waste from the body which are considered yang in this case. When the human body is shown like a pentagram with arms toward the sky, the meridians that run from the earth toward the sky are considered yin compared to the yang meridians that run from the sky toward the earth. This is because the yin meridians receive their energy directly from the earth, whereas the yang meridians receive their energy directly from the sky. The yin and yang meridians that share an element always communicate with each other and all the elements communicate with one another forming a full cycle that is never-ending.

There is a little bit of yin in every yang element and a little bit of yang in every yin element. Just as the God cannot survive without the Goddess, nor can the Goddess survive without the God, yin cannot survive without yang and vice versa. All five of the elements rely on one another as well and none can survive without the others. This whole system relies on this fragile balance of duality and interdependence. Every blockage that could even slightly change this balance can have an effect at many different levels which is why we must constantly work to maintain this balance through health, physical activity, balanced nutrition, breathing techniques and meditation. Remember to always follow the path of balance and to avoid the extremes; everything in moderation is the secret.

Rune of the Month

By Lady WolfCiara

E - Ehwaz – Odin’s Rune – Horse Rune – SOUL JOURNEY

This rune at interpretation means communication; insight; unselfishness; patience; memories; bond of trust/loyalty; soul-travel; relationship; many changes in life; insight through inner journey.

Prediction for May 2022

For the coming month, we will experience a lot of new things happening. Mostly it is communications with others that gets us away from a stagnated place or problem. One will work with helping others, before oneself. Lots of memories are to be expected and you might even take a trip inside yourself to learn from what you know and then applying it to your life, with making new friends, and gaining a lot of trust from that experience.

Wolfcara's Wiccan World

By Lady WolfCiara

Merry meet my fellow Wiccans and Welcome to my little corner of the Wiccan World.

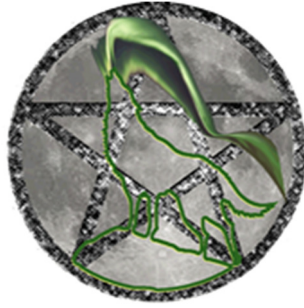

So, yet another month passed by and with it came some days of actually really warm weather. At least in Sweden, so it looks promising for the days. That they are coming with summer and warmth and have a new world open up again. I have actually really missed the summer and all that it comes with. Bathing outdoors in lakes and seas, be out without having so much to wear on your body. Maybe, even get a tan too. Summer, I do like a lot, and to see all the new life come forth. The bushes, the trees go green, and all the flowers that are blossoming on the ground. My favourite one is purple Lilacs, as the smell memorize me. That one, and Lavender – which get me the feeling of being safe and relaxed.

I have attended a class for one of my 3rd Degree classes, and she had it online on Zoom. She had it well organized, and very informative. She did a real good work, and one could tell, that she had put a lot of energy, and thoughts into her class she held. It was divided in two sittings, with 2 hours, for each part. She did excel, and I am happy to be her Mentor for 3rd Degree. I am so happy, that I can be a part for the Tradition, and help out as Mentor for those that are seeking knowledge, and also be a good person to show what the Tradition has to offer to the wider community. I haven't regretted a day, since I started out with Correllian Nativist Tradition. Which is up to the whopping 18 years, now. Time does fly quickly sometimes.

I have had, yet another visit of my two brothers, and their four daughters, as they had spring break, for a week. We had 3 days with fun, fun, and more fun. It was a lot we did, as we tried to be outdoors a bit, too. We were playing hide-and-go-seek, but it was only one of my brothers, who was the one counting to 30. Although, one of the days I was inside, and prepared for late lunch, and they were playing hide-and-go-seek, again. This time three of them got inside and was waiting for to be found indoors. Those kids, those kids. Well, we had a ton of fun, and it was really hard to say goodbye to everyone. We said that it wouldn't take long time, to next time we would meet up, again. The house got so quiet after they left, so now I miss them even more, for that feeling.

Take care until next time. Blessed be all of you. Love and light, hugz and blessings.

Welcome to the corner for readings and, hopefully, answers to a specific question, or just a reading to know what will be happening next month.

The readings can be anonymous and known only to the Herald Editor and myself. To get your reading done, you only have to send in an e- mail to the Herald Editor at this address: heraldeditor@gmail.com.

This month is the querent: Gaia/ Our Earth. I'm using a 3-card-spread with: "The Runes".

Past : V/W - Wunjo – Joy Rune - enjoyment of life – HUMOR

Present: A - Ansus – Asgard Rune – Seid-rune – WISDOM

Future: G – Gebo – Gift Rune - God's gift - VICTIMS LIKE

Conclusion, and prediction is:

The past has been a lot of joy, happiness, and fun times. Lot of wonderful thing has emerged itself. In the Present, have the humans seeking wisdom, and acknowledgement. Future says to us, that we are getting that we all are wishing for, to get back to normal status, and that love purveys all around the World.

So, even, if it seems like it is an on-going decline, and lot of harm to the World. She is still looking forward to get it on the right track, again. She will prevail, and she will be there to watch the World be a place to live on, for now, and the future.

Love and light, hugz and blessings. Take care until next time. Blessed be all of you.

The Order of Divination
Palmistry

This month the Order of Divination has been thinking about more unknown or lesser used forms of divination. So if you use any different forms of divination that you would like to see featured then please do let us know. We have had yet more requests come in for some more bibliomancy and palmistry and it has been a while so for this month we have another palm reading for you to have a look at and interpret!

What can you read from this? Please feel free to send in pictures of your own palms for us all to interpret and do write in and tell us what you interpret. We would love to publish anyone's readings if they so wish to.

Thank you to all those who wrote in with their thoughts and interpretations last month. Please do let us know if you would like to have them published in the next edition of the Correllian Herald. Or if you wish to tell us about a particular form of divination or spread, or tarot deck, or rune set or have your own interpretations featured then please send them to – heraldeditor@gmail.com

Chartered Bodies of the Correllian Tradition

Witan Shrines are the first level of the Temple-Making Process. Witan Shrines are created by Charter of the Tradition and may progress to Full Temple status over the course of several years or remain at Witan Shrine status indefinitely.

A list of current Witan Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/witan-shrines.html>

Proto-Temples are groups which have progressed beyond the status of Shrines and are on their way to becoming Full Temples but have not yet achieved that status.

A list of current Proto-Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/proto-temple.html>

Full Temples of the Correllian Tradition have completed the Temple-Making Process and, if headed by a Third Degree, have representation on the Witan Council. A Full Temple can perform all of the functions of a Temple and may in some cases have multiple branches.

A list of current Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/temple.html>

Formal Shrines are Shrines that are dedicated to specific activities of a limited nature. Formal Shrines may exist as an aspect of a larger group or may stand alone in their own right.

A list of current Formal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/formal-shrines.html>

Personal Shrines are an aspect of an individual Correllian member's personal piety and are not bodies of the Tradition as such. Personal Shrines exist wholly at the discretion of the member, however the Tradition does acknowledge them upon request.

A list of current Personal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/personal-shrines.html>

Orders are associations within the Tradition dedicated to specific skills, tasks, or interests. This sort of Order is not to be confused with the Meritorious Orders which are awarded in recognition of service.

A list of current Orders may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/orders.html>

Houses of Contemplation are established to facilitate the temporary or permanent practice of the contemplative religious life. Depending upon the rules of the specific House of Contemplation guests may come for spiritual retreats of designated length, or to pursue a life of permanent contemplation in the manner of a Monastery.

A list of current Houses of Contemplation may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/houses-of-contemplation.html>
